

Data Center Specification Sheet

FACILITIES

Union Station South Bend

- 93,000 square foot former railroad station
- Solid construction with floor loading up to 450 pounds per square foot
- Several telecommunication companies, whose fiber optic cable runs in the railroad easements, have chosen to create connections at Union Station
- All tenants of Union Station have access to the meet-me-room to interconnect
- Union Station provides access to over 50 telecommunication companies who touch the Global Access Point network in South Bend, Chicago, and Indianapolis
- Machine space is available by the rack, cabinet, cage, or data suite
- Two commercial power feeds from separate substations
- AC, DC, UPS and generator-backed power are available
- Modular power and cooling system design
- Direct connection to providers of digital services who also reside at Union Station:
 - Off-site back ups
 - Managed disaster recovery
 - Voice over internet
 - Hosted IP telephony
 - Web hosting and development

DEC Building South Bend at the Toll Road

- 15,000 square feet
- 5,000 square feet raised floor
- Connected by fiber to Union Station South Bend
- Several telecommunication companies, whose fiber optic cable runs the Indiana toll road, make connections at the GAP building
- 120 foot tower with antenna space available

Indianapolis Telecomm Center – GAP Colocation

- 2,000 square feet
- Connectivity to Telcomm Center meet-me room
- Connected by GAP network to Union Station South Bend and Chicago

Global Access Point
6561 Lonewolf Dr Suite 100
South Bend, IN 46628
574.472.0750 www.global-access.us